The many friends of Mr. T. B. Botts, Esq., will be glad to learn that he is convalescing from a recent severe and protracted attack of the la grippe.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI for Weak Nerves.

Messrs. JACOB & ELDRIDGE have finished moving and have opened up at their new and much more handsome quarters in the Finney building, on Main street.

The advertising columns of a local paper are looked upon as an index, or kind of directory by the public. Your name and business should have a place in it.

A COLORED man by the name of Briggs, son-in-law of Louis Brown, died in the western part of the city Thursday night and was buried at Watrousville Friday.

The right of circumcision was performed on the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Abe Harrison, at ten o'clock Thursday morning last, by Dr. L. Heidingsfelder, of Houston.

The next meeting of the Truck Growers Association will be held here Saturday the 7th prox., and a full attendance is requested as business of importance is to be transacted.

From the number of hunters that go out shot, gun and pointer dog accompaniments, one can't help having visions of quail on toast, but the visions are about all that we have.

Mrs. CONNELLY, of Jonesboro, who stopped here on her return from a visit to New Orleans, the guest of the family of Mr. Ed Hoffmann, has been quite sick with la-grippe.

JIM STRINGFELLOW, colored, died at his home in Camptown Wednesday night, of pneumonia having relapsed from the la grippe. He was interred at the colored church yard in Camptown Thursday evening.

MR. J. McFARLAND has sold out his book and stationery business on the corner of Sandy and St. Charles street to Messrs. Landgraf Bros., who will take charge of the business on the 1st of February.

McELREE'S WINE OF CARDUI, a Tonic for Women.

MR. ROBERT HEARTFIELD went down to Chappell Hill Thursday afternoon. His frequent visits there having excited some curiosity, he purchased a ticket for Hempstead, calling for it very loudly, but we are not so easily thrown off Robert.

A LETTER from Caldwell states that a large crowd of the young people of that town will attend the ball given complimentary to Green's Brigade on the 21st of February by the Brenham Light Guard and Field Artillery.

A joint meeting of the Light Guard and Brenham Field Artillery is called to meet at the armory next Monday night to take some concert of action looking towards the arrangements for the military ball on the occasion of the re-union of Green's Brigade.

TOM HOBBS, fined in the mayor's court a few days ago, and in default of payment of his fine put to work on the street, took French leave the first time an opportunity was offered him, but was in the city once again Saturday and got "run in" by policeman John Lockett, and will perhaps have to stay out his fine in the calaboose.

Grimm-Saager.

The bar of Justice in Washington county's magnificent temple Thursday evening last was for a few moments transformed into a marriage altar, when Mr. Louis C. Grimm, of Austin county, led into Justice Curry's presence, Miss Henrietta A. Saager, of this county, beautifully attired in full bridal costume—orange blossoms, silken tresses, soft and sleek, with witching look and tinted cheek—combined with an air of refined gentle grace and sylph-like form that caused the charmed groom to look happiness from orbs that sparkled with admiration for her. In the presence of a few spectators, Justice Curry in his usual graceful manner performed the ceremony that mingled into one the lives and destiny of the happy couple who the reporter trust may always be as happy as they looked upon this occasion.

"It leads them all," is the general reply of druggists when asked about the merit or sales of Hood's Sarsaparilla.

JUDGE KIRK, chairman of the Executive Committee, has appointed the following named gentlemen on the committee of public comfort for the Green Brigade re-union: F. W. Schureberg, chairman; R. E. Ponington, L. F. Grassmuck, W. P. Ewing and Frank Giesecke.

Two soiled doves answering to the names of Nellie Barbosa and Mattie Byrd, colored, had an altercation near Kiber's corner Saturday night, in which Nellie slashed Mattie with a knife on the arm, inflicting an ugly wound, from which the "crimson tide" flowed quite freely, indicating a pretty severe cut.

Changed Hands.

Attention is called to the advertisement of the Merchants' Exchange Saloon, which has recently been bought out by Mr. Fred Heinicke, in which he says he proposes to keep up the well earned reputation of the former management for being headquarters for straight whiskey, fine wine and cigars. Mr. Heinicke is a clever gentleman, and will treat you square. Give him a call.

MR. STEVE ROBERTS was killed near Duke, a station on the Santa Fe some distance this side of Galveston, Thursday morning, by being struck with a passenger train while rounding a curve on a railroad velocipede. The heavy fog prevented him from seeing the approaching train. His mangled remains were started to the hospital at Galveston, but he expired before reaching there and was sent back to Gay Hill, the home of his parents. He was a young man and unmarried.

CONSIDERABLE interest has been manifested every where in the election of a United States Senator from Kansas, and among those in this city who watched and awaited the result with interest was a strong republican and an equally strong democrat, who would discuss Ingall's probable chances every day when they met. Tuesday last when there was lots of guessing as to the probable result, the democrat took up a proposed wager of the republican, and was considerably elated when the result became known.

THE Brenham Light Guard held their regular monthly drill Friday night, after which they took under consideration the various entertainments in which they are to participate in the near future, one of which was the military ball they are to tend the visitors to the re-union of Green's Brigade on Saturday night, February 21, and the reception for the entertainment of the Houston Light Guards the Monday night following, on the occasion of their visit here to present their minstrel show for the benefit of their armory fund. The Light Guards will be joined in this entertainment by the O. O. O. Society, which is a sufficient guarantee that it will be a success. The reception will be tendered after the show and the O. O. O.'s and the Light Guard will endeavor to entertain them until time for their departure at 2 o'clock the next morning. There is a fellow-feeling of old veterans between these two companies, which had its origin during their service together in the Richmond campaign.

The Hempstead Shoot.

Messrs. R. L. Burnes, B. S. Rogers, W. H. Snell and W. H. Lockhart returned Thursday night from the big shoot at Hempstead on the 28th and 29th. There were nine matches shot, most of which were at live birds, and with varying success between the numerous crack shots that were present, but it remained for a Brenham man to lead the score, winning more purses than any other man on the ground. That man was Mr. R. L. Burnes. The gentlemen were well pleased with their trip and the manner in which the shoot was conducted.

The best time to kill weeds and grass is about two days before they come up.

As will be seen by an advertisement elsewhere, Mr. A. T. Threadgill has purchased another stock of jewelry and will open up for business in a few days. He has given Mr. Rouse the contract for papering the Quebe building and contracted with Mr. Cordray for a handsome line of fixtures which are to be antique oak and the handsomest in the city. From the elaborate account of the improvements he has contracted for, and his description of the handsome stock he has purchased, he will have a veritable "Palace of beauty," the name he has selected for his new place of business, with "popular prices" for his motto. He has contracted with the BANNER to keep the public posted in reference to his new business and proposes to make things hum when he gets started.
